SECOND SUNDAY OF EASTER

Acts 2:42-47

TEAM SPIRIT

Some teams have a life of their own. A good team is not just a collection of talented individuals. It is individuals working together in such a way that they create something new and better.

You can have inadequate members in a good team as long as the team sustains all the members. Some teams take the ball field, some of them prepare a meal, and some of them keep a parish alive to its gospel call.

The team that formed in the years after Jesus died was that kind of a group. They taught and prayed, served, and lived in community. This "Easter team"—the church—worked so well that miracles happened and their numbers increased. God was blessing the work they did.

One of the hallmarks of Christianity is that it is not a faith for loners. Even though each of us meets God intently in the privacy of our hearts, we meet God fully in the communion of the faithful.

You can support your parish community in many ways. You can learn with others, worship in the assembly, do acts of charity with a group, and just spend time with your friends there. When you do, you build God's Easter team.

Did You Know?

The Second Sunday of Easter is Divine Mercy Sunday. Jesus appeared to a Polish nun named Maria Faustina Kowalska providing private revelations about Divine Mercy and requesting that a Feast of Mercy be observed. On May 5, 2000, five days after the canonization of St. Faustina, the Vatican decreed that the Second Sunday of Easter would henceforth be known as Divine Mercy Sunday.

The Image: Jesus appeared to St. Faustina in a vision, with his right hand raised in a blessing and his left touching his garment above his heart. Red and white rays emanate from his heart, symbolizing the blood and water that was poured out for our salvation and our sanctification. The Lord requested that “Jesus, I trust in You” be inscribed under his image. Jesus asked that his image be painted and venerated throughout the world: promising “that the soul that will venerate this image will not perish” and “By means of this image I will grant many graces to souls”.

The Chaplet of Divine Mercy: The Chaplet was also given to St. Faustina with this promise: “Encourage souls to say the chaplet which I have given you”. “Whoever will recite it will receive great mercy at the hour of death. ... Even if there were a sinner most hardened, if he were to recite this chaplet only once, he would receive grace from My infinite mercy. I desire that the whole world know My infinite mercy”.

Written and video versions of the Divine Chaplet can be found on the internet.
