THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER

Acts 2:14, 22-23

THE EASTER MESSAGE

Christian parents have the joy of teaching the faith to their children. When they do so, they tell the story in its simplest terms. Jesus came from God. He performed many miracles. His enemies put him to death on a cross. God raised him up again. These are the core elements of the story of Jesus. When parents tell them, they renew their own faith.

On the first Pentecost Sunday, Peter found himself in a situation that called for the core message. He stood up in Jerusalem before a group of his peers and preached. What could he say? He just told the basics. Jesus came with a mission and he rose from the dead.

Some people are afraid they do not know enough about their faith to teach others. They shy away from volunteering. Yet the core message of our belief is contained in the creed we know so well and recite so regularly. And if the faith has truly taken firm hold of our hearts, we will be unable to keep quiet about its message.

Christian parents do this best, but we are called in many ways to proclaim the simple message and core belief: Jesus came from God, and he is risen!

Did You Know?

While Easter Day is past we are still in the season of Easter. The Easter season mirrors the season of Lent with 6 weeks. Throughout Lent we heard stories showing Jesus' divinity, miracles, and his love for us. During Easter we hear stories from the Acts of the Apostles which show how the risen Christ revealed himself to his followers. This week we hear the story of the journey to Emmaus. The disciples traveling down the road encounter a stranger who helps them connect the dots between Old Testament readings and the suffering and resurrection of Jesus. They invite him to stop with them and have dinner.

During the meal the stranger takes bread and blesses it and gives it to them. At that moment, in the breaking of the bread, they recognize him as the risen Lord. Jesus then disappears. Their hearts were burning with joy when they were in his presence and they hurried back to share the joy of that experience with the others.

Being in Jesus' presence through the Word, Community, and Sacrament of Eucharist should bring that same joy to us! Do we recognize his real presence in the breaking of the bread?
