THE HOLY FAMILY OF JESUS, MARY, AND JOSEPH

Sirach 3:2-7, 12-14

HONOR YOUR FATHER AND YOUR MOTHER

Our first experience of family is dependence. As children we need the help of parents. As children we get lots of attention. We do not earn it. We just receive it because of who we are.

Then our eyes are opened. We recognize the sacrifice our parents have made. We see how they thought less of themselves in order to give us life. Our respect for them grows.

Today we remember the care that Mary and Joseph gave to Jesus. We recognize the sacrifice they made. We imagine the many ways they thought less of themselves to improve the life of the son entrusted to their care. Our respect for them grows too.

Sirach proclaims that those who honor their parents atone for their sins and keep themselves from evil. Their prayers reach God's ears. The benefits of satisfaction return to those who honor their fathers and mothers.

The Christmastime feast of the Holy Family celebrates the model of home life, but it also reminds us to honor our parents. Kindness to them will not be forgotten.

How will you honor your parents this coming year? How will you keep their memory?

Christmas Giving

Hearts to Hands

As Christmas continues, please remember our northside neighbors who are in need. Gifts of food, soup, toilet paper, soap, dish soap, shampoo, toothpaste and money to support the Table of the Good Shepherd Food Pantry and the 12 Points

Brown Bag Project are greatly appreciated.

Thank you for your generosity.

THE HOLY FAMILY

Sacred Heart Memories

I remember when we took over the old convent and were converting it for religious education classes. We tore down walls and made a big mess! Lots of people helped and it all came together.
