THE EPIPHANY OF THE LORD

Isaiah 60:1-6
CARAVANS OF CAMELS

About those camels, we're not too sure about them. Yes, every nativity scene shows the magi seated on stately dromedaries, or leading their beasts of burden by bit and rein. But, quite honestly, the story of the Magi never tells us how they got there. They could have traveled on foot, in chariot, on horseback, elephants, or by camel—but we just don't know.

The reason we keep putting them on camels in our art is because of Isaiah's prophecy. He predicted that caravans of camels would fill Jerusalem, and that people from the East would come bearing gold and frankincense. "Rise up in splendor, Jerusalem!" he proclaims. "Your light has come."

In Matthew's story, the magi realize that Jerusalem's light has come. They follow the star and bring their gifts of gold and frankincense. Myrrh, too. By telling about these gifts, Matthew turns our attention back to Isaiah. Reading that prophecy, we realize that the light Isaiah mentioned is the Light of the World, Jesus Christ.

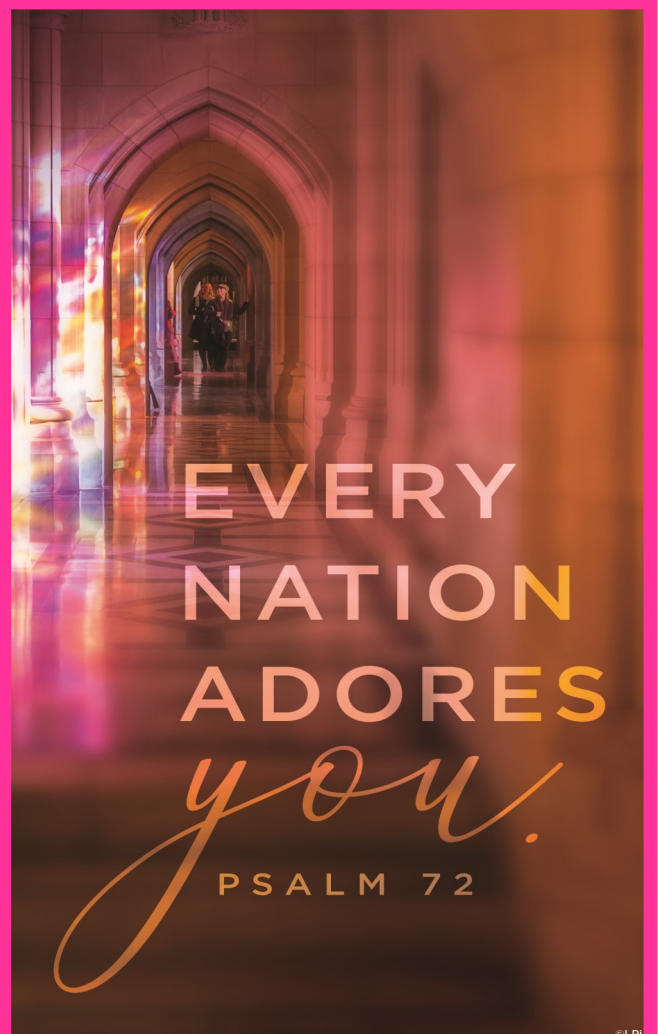

When we see the magi seated on camels, we are remembering Isaiah. When we remember Isaiah, we remember the light that came to shatter the darkness of our world. Those camels carry hope.

Wabash Valley Right to Life Benefit Dinner

Tuesday, January 30, 2024

If anyone is interested in attending, this is a free dinner meant to educate and support pro-life activities. We need at least 8 people committed to attending by this Wednesday. Please let Barb know if you are interested so we can reserve a table.

Christmas Giving

Hearts to Hands

As the Christmas season comes to an end, please remember our northside neighbors who are in need. Gifts of food, soup, toilet paper, soap, dish soap, shampoo, toothpaste and money to support the Table of the Good Shepherd Food Pantry and the 12 Points Brown Bag Project are greatly appreciated. Thank you for your generosity.

Sacred Heart Memories

I came in towards the end of the festivals, but I remember that they took participation by the whole parish to make them work. There were rides and games and of course tons of food!
