FOURTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Zechariah 9:9-10

TRUSTING IN HUMILITY

The dream for world peace ever stirs the heart of humanity. Imagine a world where nations stopped their aggression, where terrorists laid down their weapons of mass destruction, and where nations respected one another's territories and customs.

Closer to home, imagine a neighborhood where people got along, where diversity was treasured, and violence was no more. We all long for the security that comes from peace.

Many nations, however, still hold that peace comes from a well-built arsenal. Leaders believe that a strong defense inhibits aggression and causes the desired peace.

But the prophet Zechariah envisions another kind of leader. He sees one who is just, who rescues people from their oppression. Meek, he rides a simple beast of burden, and yet his dominion extends all across the world. This leader accomplishes the desired gift of peace not from weapons, not from intimidation, but from the example of humility.

Our leaders will continue to put their trust in weapons as long as we do too. If we live in trust, we can build a place where peace will reign from sea to sea. Imagine the world at peace. Imagine it starting with you.

100th Anniversary Year of Celebration

Mark your calendar now for our end of year celebration on June 8, 2024.

Throughout this year we encourage you to do acts of kindness and record them on the hearts available at the church entrance and in the Holy Family Center. Hearts can be returned in the collection baskets or given to Barb. They will be displayed in the Holy Family Center throughout the year.

We are also hoping to reach out to former members of the parish and encourage them to share in our celebration by sharing memories and pictures. They are also invited to be included in our 100th Anniversary Directory. Please share this information with friends of the parish.

Be watching our Facebook page and website for postings from our first 100 years.

Summer essentials

Now that schools are no longer in session the need in our community is even greater. Please consider helping our northside neighbors by giving money, food, and healthcare items to support the Table of the Good Shepherd Food Pantry and the 12Points Brown Bag Project. Gifts of food, soup, toilet paper, soap, dish soap, shampoo and toothpaste are greatly appreciated.

Thank you for your generosity.

CATHOLIC CALISTHENICS PART 2

Once we enter the Church and find a pew in which to sit, we genuflect to the tabernacle prior to sitting down. Genuflection is a momentary kneeling to the floor on the right knee, with the body erect. We genuflect toward the Tabernacle containing the Blessed Sacrament before entering our pew at the beginning of Mass and upon leaving our pew at the conclusion of the Mass. The Catholic Church teaches that the Eucharist truly IS the body, blood, soul, and divinity of Jesus Christ and that He is the King of the entire universe. Given this truth, and His presence in the tabernacle, it only makes sense that we humble ourselves and drop down on one knee to greet Him upon our arrival.

Sitting is a posture of peaceful rest together in the presence of God as we receive God's word in scripture and listen to the preaching offered by the priest or deacon. This posture fosters our thoughtful reflection on God's message to us.

Before the reading of the Gospel there we sign ourselves in a specific way. Just before the proclamation of the Gospel by the deacon or priest. When he says, "A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Matthew," and we respond, "Glory to you, Lord," we use our thumb to make a small sign of the cross on our forehead (asking God to help us understand his word), on our lips (that we might speak his word), and on our heart (where we will store his word and ponder it). As we make this gesture, it is appropriate to pray silently something like this: "May the words of the Holy Gospel remain always on my mind, on my lips, and in my heart."

Standing together is a sign of our respect for God as we direct our prayer to him. It is also a posture of alertness to hear the words of the Risen Lord speaking to us directly in the proclamation of the Gospel. While we sit during the proclamation of the other scripture passages, we stand for the Gospel, because we are being addressed by the words of Jesus Christ himself.

Sacred Heart Memories

I first started coming to Sacred Heart when I was in school at UHSN in 1952. Fr. McBarron was priest here then.

Our 4 children were all baptized, made first communion and came here for Sunday School.

Our daughter, Lisa was here and had all 3 boys baptized and made their first communions here. She also taught Catechism for a few years.

My husband, Herman, went to the grade school for awhile and had his funeral mass here in 1988.

It's been around 70 years since we started coming here.

I remember going to church in the old school house before the present church was built.
