Our Parish Mission Statement

Sacred Heart of Jesus Parish is a Catholic faith community reaching out to all people. As good stewards, we are inspired by God's word to educate, evangelize and grow spiritually, strengthening ourselves as a Christian community.

❖ Please call the Parish Office for information on the Sacraments ❖

THE MOST HOLY TRINITY Exodus 34:4-6, 8-9 THE IMAGE OF GOD

Your image of God may change throughout your life. You may for a time think of God as an authority figure to be feared, as gentle Jesus loving you, as an infant who bestows blessing, or as a mother who gathers her children to herself.

God is mysterious. God is all these images and yet unable to be completely imagined or named.

Some people become angry with God when tragedy strikes their lives. They cannot reconcile their image of God with the reality of the world around them. For some it is easier to become angry than to enter the mystery of salvation more deeply.

The friendship between God and Moses is legendary. When Moses asked for the divine name, God obliged. That name is so sacred, that we usually say "the Lord" instead of God's own name.

God's self-description, given to Moses, includes phrases like merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and rich in kindness and fidelity.

The full revelation of God came through the sending of the Son and the Spirit. Together these three persons unite for creation, redemption, and sanctification. As a holy trinity, God's image is made known.

Hearts to Hand Summer essentials

Now that schools are no longer in session the need in our community is even greater. Please consider helping our northside neighbors by giving money, food, and healthcare items to support the Table of the Good Shepherd Food Pantry and the 12 Points Brown Bag Project. Gifts of food, soup, toilet paper, soap, dish soap, shampoo and toothpaste are greatly appreciated.
Thank you for your generosity.

Did You Know?

It's OK Not to Understand the Trinity

Christians believe that there is only one God, but they also believe that the Father is God, the Son is God, and the Holy Spirit is God (Acts 5:1-4). God exists as three persons, but he is not three gods. He is instead one God who exists as three equally divine, equally eternal persons, and this truth forms the central foundation and mystery of the Christian faith (Catechism of the Catholic Church 234).

But in another sense, it's not easy to explain how God can be one infinite being and three persons at the same time. Analogies that Christians often employ can easily lead to heresies if they're taken too literally. These include the three-leaf clover, which can lead to God existing as three separate parts (or tri-theism), and water's ability to be solid, liquid, and gaseous, which can lead to turning the Trinity into three modes of God's existence instead of three persons (or modalism).

At some point, the theologian must admit that we can't fully explain how God exists as a Trinity and that this is a mystery of the Faith, but this isn't a cop-out in order to avoid answering important questions and objections.

The Trinity cannot be fully comprehended, or understood in every respect. Reasoning from the Scriptures says, "Should we really expect to understand everything about a Person who is so great that he could bring into existence the universe, with all its intricate design and stupendous size?"

We have completed the season of Easter, celebrated the Birthday of the Church and once again will turn the page to Ordinary Time in our Liturgies. But that means anything but "ordinary" for Catholics. The programming on Covenant Network Catholic Radio will provide information and inspiration to enrich your faith journey and prayer life. Stay tuned to Covenant Network on WHOJ 91.9 FM or listen anytime on the Covenant Network app or at OurCatholicRadio.org.

The KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS will be holding its next exemplification ceremony to welcome in new Knights to our local council on Sunday, June 11th following the 11:30 am Mass at St. Joseph University Parish. If it's time for you to join the Knights, please contact Bret Ridgway at 812-878-2234 or email info@THKofC541.com.

SISTERS TO HOST VIRTUAL GUIDED MEDITATION

Plan to join the Sisters of Providence of Saint Mary-of-the-Woods, Indiana, from 6:30-7:30 p.m., EDT, on Thursday, June 8, for the "Virtual Guided Meditation" program. During the event, Sister Corbin Hannah, SP, will invite you to go inward, explore different themes in your life and pray – not only with your mind – but also with your body and heart. The event is free to attend, but all participants are asked to register at Events.SistersofProvidence.org.

For more information, call 812-535-2952 or email provctr@spsmw.org.
