FIFTH SUNDAY OF LENT Jeremiah 31:31-34 HAPPILY COMPLYING

There is obedience. And then there's attitude. Sometimes we do what we're supposed to do. But we don't always like it. Sometimes we obey with anger in our hearts, resentful of our actions, unhappy with subservience.

But other times we happily comply. We obey because we agree with what has to be done. We obey because we look forward to good results. We obey because we love the one who has asked a favor.

When the exiled inhabitants of Jerusalem returned to their holy city, God promised a new covenant through the prophet Jeremiah. The old covenant was good, but people broke it and God had to show them who was their master. This time, God had a better idea. God would write the covenant on their hearts.

Now when people obeyed, they would do so with the right attitude. They would not resist. They would not wander away from the covenant when they had the chance. They would so love God that they would happily comply with what their maker asked.

And God would forgive their sins.

During Lent, God has asked for your obedience. What attitude have you carried? Will you let God write the covenant on your heart? Will you happily comply and come to know the Lord?

We will be praying Stations of the Cross on the Fridays of Lent at 5:30pm.

You are also invited to join us on the Tuesdays of Lent at St. Mary's Village for "Scripture and Supper." We begin in the church at 6pm with a communion service, then move to Galvin Hall to share a pitch-in supper.

We moved here in 1997. We did not have any friends or family here. Sacred Heart Parish became our friends, family and faith.

“
One Sunday when my children were particularly loud in church, I told Father McQueen I was sorry they were so loud. He said, "When you don't hear children in church, the church is dead." I will never forget that!
