THIRTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Wisdom 6:12-16

NEITHER REMOTE NOR ALOOF

Education is more than gaining knowledge about things. It is attaining wisdom. It forms people in a way of life. Religious education especially has this goal: not just teaching things about church, but forming people as disciples.

Even when we leave school, we still have much to learn. The lessons of life come easily at times, but also at great cost. Those who go through life open to learning will gain true wisdom.

The Book of Wisdom imagines God's wisdom as a woman. She is not aloof and hard to discover. She hastens to make herself known in anticipation of those who desire to see her. She goes around where people live, appears to them on the streets, and greets them with care. The wisdom of life is easy to grasp for those who want to learn.

How does your community make it possible for you to gain wisdom? Do people gather for formal education? Do guests come to speak? Does your community promote the reading of books and the discussion of ideas?

God's wisdom is not meant to be remote. It is ready for us before we are ready for it. When we go to seek wisdom, wisdom will be there waiting.

Gifts of food, soup, toilet paper, soap, dish soap, shampoo and toothpaste are greatly appreciated.

Sacred Heart Memories

We moved here in 1997. We did not have any friends or family here. Sacred Heart Parish became our friends, family and faith.

Mark & Eric were blessed to have 2 years at Sacred Heart School. They made lifelong friends!

Biddy Basketball was a huge part of our children's fall and winter activities for many years!

All of our children were altar servers.

Six of our children received the sacraments of Reconciliation and First Communion. Kateri was the only child baptized at Sacred Heart with Fr. Giannini.

Sean would ask very challenging questions of Fr. Giannini every chance he got.

We loved the Carnival Fundraiser in the late 1990's to early 2000's, and the Auction that came in later years.

St. Nick was a big part of our Christmas tradition. The kids would buy family gifts there.
