THIRTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Malachi 1:14–2:2, 8-10

FAITHFUL DISSENT

People who dissent from the teaching of the church find themselves caught between their loving trust of authority and the quiet but strong voice of conscience within them. They can see contradictions and ironies among the members of the community. When they form their disagreement they strive to do so in the charity demanded by the gospel. If they dissent in anger, they damage the moral ground on which they stand.

The prophet Malachi faced a situation requiring faithful dissent. The priests had violated God's commandments. They offered animals of inferior quality in sacrifice. They did not teach people accurately. They showed partiality in their judgments. God spoke through Malachi to challenge the religious leadership of his day.

The prophet made his appeal based on the ideals of the community. He reminded the priests that all people shared the same God, who served as their creator and divine parent. God was their point of unification. Priests were responsible to God for observing the law, but they were also accountable to the community to sustain its covenant.

Malachi gives an example of faithful dissent: an opinion steeped in prayer, specific in its challenge, solid in its foundation of fidelity to God's word.

Did You Know?

You should have received your pledge cards for the United Catholic Appeal. This weekend is appeal weekend and cards can be returned in the collection basket or mailed to the parish. If you did not receive a pledge card, they are available in the pews. Our parish goal for this year is $14,312. Below is another ministry helped by your donations.

Catholic Schools

For Tom, a student at Father Michael Shawe Memorial Jr./Sr. High School in Madison, he feels that his Catholic education has allowed him to push himself to the limits and enjoy learning. He can understand how to form connections as well as implement God in his everyday life.

For Melissa, a student at Seton Catholic High School in Richmond, she feels the love, support and example of her teachers who through the years have challenged and supported her as she learns to think critically and develop the talents God has given her.

Our catholic schools serve 24,000 students across the Archdiocese in 67 schools. The schools are more than just a place of learning, they are a faith community for students and their families.

Through the United Catholic Appeal, we are United in the Eucharist. Thank you for your witness as you serve Christ by helping our Catholic Schools students with your donation to the United Catholic Appeal! www.archindy.org/UCA

Heart to Hands

As the weather turns colder and we think about turning on the heat, remember our neighbors who must choose between heat and food. Please consider helping our northside neighbors by giving money, food, and healthcare items to support the Table of the Good Shepherd Food Pantry and the 12 Points Brown Bag Project. Gifts of food, soup, toilet paper, soap, dish soap, shampoo and toothpaste are greatly appreciated.

Thank you for your generosity.

The excellent programming of Covenant Network Catholic radio will keep you focused on the things that matter for eternity, your spiritual life. Pray the Holy Mass, the Rosary, the Angelus and the Divine Mercy Chaplet, each of which is broadcast daily. Many inspirational and educational programs will lift your heart throughout the day. Tune in to WHOJ 91.9 FM or listen anytime on the Covenant Network app or at OurCatholicRadio.org.

Sacred

Heart

History

As a means of sustaining the spirit of the parish and for the benefit of the members, Fr. Pfau arranged for the organization of a Court of the Catholic Order of Foresters. The first meeting was held in May 1937 with thirty-three charter members. Besides its particular insurance feature for the help and protection of the members, the Order's primary interest is the welfare of the parish. Fr. Pfau's hopes were fulfilled, in that, the Court of Foresters proved to be of invaluable assistance and service to the parish.

Holy Rosary Parish in Seelyville was attached to Sacred Heart Parish as a Mission in July 1924. It was transferred to St. Patrick Parish in June 1939.

Father James Moore was appointed pastor in June 1939. The economic situation was improving, and employment became more plentiful and dependable. Fr. Moore took advantage of these conditions to introduce a program of regular activities and benefits as revenues increased. He organized the Mothers' Club whose initial meeting was held on October 18, 1939. The Mothers' Club sponsored a number of activities including: the annual school picnic, the Christmas party, breakfast for the graduates. The annual Fathers' Night Dinner was the principal social event of the parish.
