TWENTY-EIGHTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Isaiah 25:6-10

THE BANQUET OF LIFE

Death creeps into our lives almost secretly. We lose members of our families and close friends. We buckle up in the car as an unreflective admission that each trip poses mortal danger. We age and experience the gradual loss of our abilities.

For those who believe in Christ, death is but a passageway to eternity. The funeral rites of the church help us ritualize our belief even as we mourn our loss.

Isaiah offers images of God's providence that fit the hope of Christians. He imagines a new Jerusalem, settled on God's holy mountain. In his vision, God provides a rich banquet—not just minimal food for the hungry, not just basic sustenance, but a banquet in which God's people taste delight. Isaiah imagines death as a veil that covers everyone, a web woven over all the nations. But in this vision, that veil is fragile, subject to destruction by God's deliberate might.

For Christians, the contrast between death and life is the contrast between hunger and banquet. Whenever the sadness of death threatens to overpower the people we love or our very lives, our belief in Christ brings all the comfort of rich food and drink.

Did You Know?

Later this month you will be receiving pledge cards for the United Catholic Appeal. Our parish goal for this year is $14,312. In the next weeks we will be featuring the programs that the United Catholic Appeal supports.

REFUGEES

Mohamed* left his homeland of Somalia in fear for his life. This journey would be difficult for anyone, but it was even more treacherous for Mohamed because he only has one leg. Mohamed made it to Uganda, where he registered as a refugee. After several years, he got the opportunity to come to the United States. Upon arriving in Indianapolis, Mohamed was immediately helped by the Catholic Charities Refugee and Immigrant Service Program. The staff assisted him with housing, education, transportation, and securing a job. During his first year in the United States, he learned English and began working on his GED. Catholic Charities connected him with a medical provider and Mohamed was able to receive a prosthetic leg. They also helped Mohamed petition for his children to come to the United States and he was able to be reunited with his family.

Through the United Catholic Appeal, we are United in the Eucharist. Thank you for your witness as you serve Christ through our brothers and sisters in need with your donation to the United Catholic Appeal!

Heart to Hands

As the weather turns colder and we think about turning on the heat, remember our neighbors who must choose between heat and food. Please consider helping our northside neighbors by giving money, food, and healthcare items to support the Table of the Good Shepherd Food Pantry and the 12 Points Brown Bag Project. Gifts of food, soup, toilet paper, soap, dish soap, shampoo and toothpaste are greatly appreciated.

Thank you for your generosity.
