TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jeremiah 20:7-9

SPEAK UP

When you know you are right, you can keep speaking the truth, even in the face of opposition. If you have not thought enough about the right thing to do, you are in danger of being influenced to do something else. If your need for acceptance is stronger than your need for doing right, you will surrender to beliefs opposed to your own. But when you know you are right, and when it becomes a matter of expressing who you are and what you believe, you cannot give in. You have to speak up. You have to keep on going, even when others do not support you any more.

Jeremiah the prophet, in his prayer, has heard God's word, but when he speaks it, people deride him. He tries being quiet, not telling the message God has given him, a message that expresses outrage against the misdeeds of his companions. But when he tries to remain silent, the word of God becomes like a fire burning in his heart. He cannot keep it in. It must come out.

It is not easy to speak God's word. To hold it in becomes unbearable. To speak it creates enemies. But only the truth brings inner peace.

DONATING BLOOD IS ABOUT LIFE!!!

The reason to donate is simple ... it helps save lives! In fact, every two seconds of every day, someone needs blood. Since blood cannot be manufactured outside the body and has a limited shelf life, the supply must constantly be replenished by generous blood donors. A deep hearted THANK YOU to all who donate blood!

Hearts to Hands

As students return to school, we remember that our less fortunate neighbors are still in need of assistance. Please consider helping our northside neighbors by giving money, food, and healthcare items to support the Table of the Good Shepherd Food Pantry and the 12 Points Brown Bag Project. Gifts of food, soup, toilet paper, soap, dish soap, shampoo and toothpaste are greatly appreciated.

Thank you for your generosity.

DID YOU KNOW?

Three Types of Festivals

Special Christian festivals are often grouped together under the title of "feast day," but the Church actually distinguishes three types of holy days: Solemnity, Feast, and Memorial.

Solemnities: A solemnity holds the highest rank among the holy days. The Church observes 24 solemnities, each one calling us to reflect on the most significant mysteries of our faith.

Solemnities in the Church include the most important days in the life of Jesus and His Church such as Christmas, Easter, and Pentecost. Solemnities also include days that commemorate the principal titles of Our Lord such as Christ the King and the Sacred Heart, and of the Blessed Mother, specifically Mother of God and the Immaculate Conception.

The Church remembers several saints like St. Joseph, St. John the Baptist, and Sts. Peter and Paul, for their important roles in salvation history by setting aside a solemnity in their honor.

Feasts: Feast Days are the next highest rank of holy days. A feast honors saints and other events in the life of Christ.

Notable feast days include the Annunciation, the Visitation, the Presentation and the Ascension. The Apostles, the Evangelists, St. Mary Magdalene, and the Archangels also have their own feasts.

Memorials: The third category of celebrations is most likely what comes to mind when Catholics talk about "feast days." Memorials honor the virtuous life of a saint and are either considered obligatory or optional.

This distinction really only applies to the priest and whether or not they get to choose to celebrate the memorial liturgically with special Mass parts. Obligatory memorials focus on saints of "universal significance" in the Church like St. Therese of Lisieux, St. Anthony, and St. Francis Xavier.

Optional memorials also often identify a saint with a special significance to a certain place or religious order. For example, priests in the United States have the option to celebrate the feasts of saints like Mother Theodore Guerin, Katherine Drexel and St. Junipero Serra.
